

27 MEN MISSING IN GREAT LAKES WRECK

Boat Crashes and Sinks off Lizard Island

Sault Ste Marie, Mich.—Twenty-seven persons are missing and are believed to have drowned or died from exposure following the disaster which overtook the tug Reliance when it hit the rocks off Lizard Island.

Seven survivors of the wreck have reached here.

The last seen of the missing twenty-seven persons was when the Reliance, battling through a blinding snowstorm, went on the rocks off Lizard Island, stripped her wheel and sank almost immediately.

Captain D. A. Williams and thirty-six others, who were forward, took one lifeboat, while nine others took the other. The second boat drifted several hours in the storm and was blown ashore on the Canadian mainland, eighty-five miles north of here.

Announcement by the company said that in addition to the crew of fourteen, the Reliance carried twenty lumberjacks, an official of the company's forestry department and a fisheries company agent who had been picked up by the Reliance on its last trip to the lumber camps.

The missing men, it is said by survivors, left the wrecked tug in a launch which was carried by the Reliance in addition to its two life-boats.

A terrific snowstorm, driven by a forty-mile-an-hour wind, has caused postponement of the attempted rescue of any survivors.

The Lizard Islands are a few miles off the Northern Ontario mainland, seventy-five miles north of Point Aux Pins, at the western entrance to the St. Mary's river.

ROY WILMOT IS SENTENCED

Former Agent of Dry Squad Gets Five Years in Prison.

San Francisco—Roy Wilmot, until recently a prohibition agent working in San Francisco has been sentenced by Federal Judge Van Fleet to five years in the United States penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kan., following his conviction on December 6 on charges of bribery in connection with a liquor raid on the Alcazar pharmacy of this city. He was also fined $500.

The indictment on which Wilmot was convicted contained three counts and he was sentenced on each. He was given five years for accepting a bribe of $100 from J. J. Kolburn and Roscoe Benson, proprietors of the drug store; one year for using Kolburn's car as a gratuity, and one year for accepting liquor from the drug-gists. The sentences run concurrently.

Prior to his conviction the former agent bore a good reputation and had a splendid record in the prohibition department.

STILL SEEK LOST AVIATORS

Fleet Leaves El Centro to Conduct Hunt Over Lower California.

El Centro, Cal.—Under the command of Major G. M. Bratt and Major McCauley, army air service, a fleet of five big aeroplanes left here to search Lower California for Colonel Francis B. Marshall and Lieutenant Charles Webber, missing aviators.

The squad of five planes will make an intensive search as far south as San Felipe. The aviators have established headquarters here for the search of the northern district of Lower California.

It is Major McCauley's theory that the missing aviators mistook the Laguna Salada or the Gulf of Lower California for the Salton sea as in the former instance of Lieutenants Connolly and Waterhouse, who were forced to land in Mexico.

GUN BATTLE ENDS FATALLY

Three Are Killed in San Bernardino Shooting Affair.

San Bernardino—In a desperate gun battle between officers and three men, who are alleged to have assaulted Mrs. Della Cota, Guillermo Valdez was shot to death by Constable Jack Weeks and Pete Weiss, cowboy, at Victorville. Valdez was standing guard with one revolver aimed at the door of the woman's bedroom, where she was battling with one of her assailants, and with another revolver pointed at the door of another room, where the husband was held prisoner. As the officers arrived Valdez opened fire. He was shot four times, and almost instantly killed. Pedro Aguilar and Jose Senor, the other two men, were tured and brought here.

FATALLY GORED BY STEER.

Madera—Mrs. Theresa Lopresti, wife of Ampino Lopresti, rancher, residing seven miles southwest of Madera, was gored to death by a ferocious steer in a pasture near the Walter Schmitz ranch. In a party of four, Mrs. Lopresti was in search of mushrooms when attacked by the animal, which is said to have strayed from a herd en route to slaughter.

Preaching no doctrine and holding forth no promise of salvation, Victor H. Arnold is the founder of New York's newest church—a Church to End Churches. He has started a series of Sunday morning talks to present his view of "The Truth." He says that his method is simple; it requires only that the individual go back to the teachings of Christ.

CANCEL WAR DEBTS IS ENGLAND'S PLEA

Bonar Law Suggests That the Nations Re-adjust Policies

London—Premier Bonar Law, in an important statement in the House of Commons, declared frankly for the policy of the Balfour note, which advocated an adjustment of interallied debts by an all-round cancellation. England on her part surrendering her share of reparations to be paid by Germany.

Thus the Prime Minister indicated that the new government, despite its first declaration that the Balfour note no longer existed, so far as the present British government was concerned, and that it would not consider itself bound by it, feels impelled to the same policy as the previous government.

The remainder of Bonar Law's speech was clearly addressed to both France and the United States—to France, a plea for moderation in dealing with Germany on the ground that that country is already on the verge of collapse; to America, a call for help and co-operation in settling the difficult problems of reparations and interallied debts.

BAY SPAN PROJECT

Noted Engineer Declares He Has $8,000,000 for Little Coyote Bridge.

San Francisco—Bringing word that $8,000,000 is immediately available for financing the construction of the little Coyote Point-Alvarado transbay bridge and that he is ready to jump in just as soon as the legal ends of the project are tied together, Frank Elbridge Webb, noted New York engineer, has arrived in San Francisco.

Webb is here to make application on behalf of the interests he represents for a franchise from the Supervisors of San Mateo county to construct and operate the Little Coyote Point bridge on a toll basis. The matter comes up before the Supervisors this week.

The plans as originally submitted call for a low level bridge at the most northerly point on the bay south of San Francisco that the United States army engineers will permit a crossing of this type. It is approximately six miles from Little Coyote Point, which is just south of San Mateo city, to Alvarado, on the Alameda county shore.

The bridge proper will cross the deepest part of the channel for a distance of one mile. Extensions on either end of the bridge to the shores will be in the form of mole construction or fill. It is planned to give the bridge a forty-foot roadway, and there is provision in the drawings to take care of electric railway lines, should that be decided as feasible.

The city of Fresno is held liable for the death of Sergeant James M. Hardenbrook, police officer, who was slain while on duty the night of July 31, and his two minor children are awarded a payment of $5000 by the State Industrial Accident Commission in a judgment filed with the city commissioner. Hardenbrook was slain by Frank Stone, 20-year-old youth, when the officer sought to place Stone and two companions, suspected of having escaped from the Lone Reform School, under arrest.

DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN

A very delightful musical program was presented before the Country Woman's Club, Monday at the home of Mrs. R. H. Hyde. Mrs. L. J. Carboni and Mrs. D. H. Cramer repeated the very timely and beautiful program of Christmas music and scriptural reading, with an exposition of the history of Christmas carols which they gave for the Pundita Circle.

At an interesting business session the revised plans for the new library building were displayed and a preliminary budget of maintenance expenses outlined.

Everyone is very enthusiastic over the style and type of building and the committee together with Mr. Higbee, have arranged for the utilization of every bit of floor space to the very best advantage. It will certainly be an object of pride to every citizen, and especially to all who are having a share in its construction.

CLEVER FUNCTION

Mrs. J. J. Pardee was hostess to about thirty ladies at her home Wednesday, December 13. It was an afternoon spent not only in sociability but in learning something that helps to add charm to the special occasions in every home, for the hostess gave a clever demonstration of decorating cakes in floral designs with colored icings. It was a pity, but the lovely Christmas designs were later demolished when no one could resist proving that the cakes tasted as good as they looked. Other delicious refreshments were also served. Those present were Mesdames Ralston Alison, I. P. Beal, Ira Beal, G. W. Burrow, L. J. Carboni, E. K. Clendenen, T. H. Corning, D. H. Cramer, B. O. Curry, H. F. Evans, E. A. Gill, Chas. Gill, C. H. BENEFIT BIG SUCCESS IN EVERY PARTICULAR

The benefit entertainment Monday evening at the Orchard City Theatre was a success beyond the optimistic hopes of the promoters. Not only was there a fine attendance but a happy genial atmosphere prevailed even among those waiting in a long line for the second showing.

A. G. Noftz, the genial manager of the theatre, who so generously offered all the receipts of the evening above expenses, gave the summary of seat sales as 54 at 10 cents, and 257 at 30 cents, making a total of $82.50. Expenses were $20, leaving $62.50. Added to this were $22.55 resulting from the sale of candy and pop-corn, making a total of $85.05.

The members of the Finance Committee, on behalf of the Country Woman's Club and all of the Library campaign, wish to express their sincere appreciation of Mr. Noftz's offer, and to Gordon Ainsley of the Pollyanna Confectionery who donated the popped corn and the bags used.

The library fund has now passed the $9,000 mark with some more in prospect.

WED AT LOS GATOS

A wedding of interest to many of our readers occurred last week in Los Gatos, the following account of which appeared in the Los Gatos Mail-News:

ROBINSON-FEATHERS

On Monday, December 11th, at eleven o'clock, a very large number of friends gathered at the Fellowship church in Los Gatos to witness the marriage of Miss Dorothy Feathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Feathers of Union District, and Mr. Asa M. Robinson, late of Boston, Massachusetts.

The charming bride, dressed in a modish, navy blue suit and carrying a shower bouquet of dainty pink roses, was attended by her sister, Miss Louise Feathers, of San Jose, who also carried pink roses, entered at the left of the church, while the groom, attended by his brother, Mr. Harold A. Robinson, of San Francisco, entered at the right, meeting the bride at the center aisle, where the Rev. Chas. Prase, pastor of the Unitarian church of San Jose, awaited them.

Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus was ably played by Mrs. H. O. Smith, violinist, and Mrs. Ethel Ricketts, accompanist.

Heavy showers of rain did not prevent heavier showers of rice and confetti, when the bride and groom left the church.

At noon the wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents, was enjoyed by several friends and relatives of both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Chester Roeder, Mrs. A. A. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Feathers, Mr. Harold Robinson, Mr. Rudeau and Mr. Lyman Feathers, all of San Francisco. Unfortunately the groom's father being ill could not attend.

After a short honeymoon the happy couple will make their home in San Francisco.

The many friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson wish them great happiness and prosperity.

The bride is a graduate of the Campbell Hi, which all of her brothers and sisters have or are attending. Mr. Feathers was one of the ardent supporters of the consolidation of Union district with the Campbell Union High School district so that Campbell has a very friendly interest in the happenings of the family.

NEW SIGN IS SOURCE OF MUCH CIVIC PRIDE

Members of the Campbell Improvement Club are justly proud of the new sign which was recently placed over Campbell Avenue just off the Johnson Avenue highway.

The question of some such sign has been before the club for two or three years. At first an electric sign was considered but their installation and upkeep proved to be too expensive to undertake, so that it was decided finally to acquire one of the style now attracting attention to our village.

It was only possible to secure the present attractive sign because of the volunteer services of a number of our good citizens.

The painting was done by Chas. Sutter, and in the work of preparing of the supports and hanging the sign Messrs. Oluf Strom, John Peterson, Andrew Johnson, Mitchell Lobrovich, Henry Young, S. N. Hedegard, L. J. Carboni, Ben Austin and Nels Peterson participated.

The residents of this community are highly appreciative of the successful efforts of the Improvement Club, in thus helping to put Campbell before the travelling public.

The kindergarten class with the first grade have been drilled by Miss Lewis and Miss Buswell, and other numbers have been prepared by Miss Burch, Mrs. Keesling, Misses McCracken, Lear, Thorne, Stebbins, and Ham.

The Campbell Grammar School Military Band will also be one of the special features in this program which will mark the close of the school activities for the Christmas season.

The work of the band is of particular interest to the patrons of the school in that the boys have been organized only since the 22nd of October, but will appear in seven numbers on the program. DATE OF BIRTH OF CHRIST

Nothing Certain is Known as to Actual Time of Arrival of Child of the Manger.

IT IS a remarkable fact that nothing certain is known as to the actual date of the birth of Christ, Dec. 25 being only a tradition, adopted by the church about the middle of the Fourth century. Lupi, a learned Jesuit of the Eighteenth century, says:

"There is not a single month in the year to which the Nativity has not been assigned by some writer or other."

The earliest celebration of Christmas on Dec. 25 appears to have been held in Rome in the Fourth century, being first mentioned in a Roman document, the Philocalian calendar, dating from the year 354, but containing an older record, referring to the year 336. Christmas was brought to England by St. Augustine, and kept in 598, but it would appear that it was not established in Germany until 813, and in Norway about the middle of the Tenth century, by King Hakon the Good.

The Romans of the empire used to celebrate the birth of the Unconquered Sun on Dec. 25, according to the Julian calendar, the winter solstice, when the sun began to rise in new vigor, after his autumnal decline. Therefore, the reason for the choice of Dec. 25 for Christmas would seem to have been symbolical.

CHRISTMAS AND GHOST TALES

Festival is Naturally Associated With Stories of Haunted Halls and Things Supernatural.

CHRISTMAS being celebrated in the depth of winter, when "lang's the neet frae e'en to morn," the festival is naturally associated with tales of haunted halls and "things" that are supernatural. Thus Dickens in his "Christmas Carol," gave us the Spirits of the Past, the Present, and the Future, but Christmas in mind, clothed each of them in a fascinating mantle of kindness, and sent them out on a message of mercy that made itself felt over all the earth. Over many a stony Scrooge have they cast their mellowing shades, teaching them to say:

"I will honor Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year. I will live in the Past, the Present, and the Future. The spirits of all three shall strive within me. I will not shut out the lessons that they teach."

Scrooge, concluded Dickens, "had no further intercourse with Spirits, but it was always said of him that he knew how to keep Christmas well, if any man alive possessed the knowledge. May that be truly said of us, and all of us! And so, as Tiny Tim observed, 'God bless us, every one.'"

CHRISTMAS DINNER

EVERY Christmas they invited one or two to have Christmas dinner with them who would otherwise have been alone. It gave them so much pleasure that they never felt they were being "kindly" nor that they were "doing a real charity." So that their guests always had a real Christmas with real Christmas cheer. For they never felt that they had been invited out of kindness, nor out of charity!

SANTA FOR ITALIAN KIDDIES

Befana, Good Fairy, Is Supposed to Fill Stockings With Toys on Twelfth Night.

THE character in Italian childhood lore corresponding to our Santa Claus is Befana, a good fairy who is supposed to fill the children's stockings with toys on Twelfth Night. She does not, however, come down the chimney, and the stockings are hung in the child's bedroom. When someone enters to fill the stocking, the child, according to a very ancient practice, cries out "Ecco la Befana." The legend concerning this lady is that the Magi, while on their way to Bethlehem, stopped at her home, but found her too busy with household affairs to entertain them. She told them that she would see them on their return, but they went back by another route, and therefore Befana comes out in search of them every Twelfth Night. Her name is a corruption of Epiphany, which is Jan. 6, the twelfth night after Christmas, according to the church calendar.

Christmas Cooperation

Cooperation has come to be one of the most important of business ideals, but did you ever stop to think that our greatest example of cooperation is the spirit of Christmas?

On Christmas everybody meets everybody else with a smile. Now, one can't see one's own smile; and so it follows that you smile for the other man's sake, and that he smiles for your sake. Each does something for the other that results in a mutual feeling of pleasure. That is cooperation.

Now consider that Christmas is the world's greatest holiday; that all over the globe people will be smiling at each other. It is as though all the earth had joined one vast cooperative society for the production of happiness. In business we lay much stress on the value of good will; but the words are borrowed from something proclaimed many centuries ago, "Peace on earth, good will to men."

Next Monday is the day of days. Since we can't meet you in the Bank at that time, we will give you our Christmas greeting now. Merry Christmas! Be happy that day, and trade a thousand smiles!

Super-Special in Minced Abalone—a Present!

You've heard the story of the man who, on a bet, stood on London Bridge and tried to give away a certain amount of good English money. He lost. People are skeptical unless they know the reason.

Now, the reason for this Abalone special is that a wholesaler wanted to make a pre-inventory stock reduction, and that we knew a bargain, a virtual gift, when we saw it. Point Lobos Minced Abalone, large can, regular 30-cent value, offered to you for 10c. But don't stop at one can—take six, or a dozen.

Y. M. C. A. WORK

The Local Unit of Campbell for the promotion and support of Y. M. C. A. work in this community and throughout the rural districts of the valley is now entering upon its annual canvass for financial support with which to maintain the Association. Due to the pressure of the season and busy days for everyone the officers of the Local Unit have thought it good policy to save as much time and effort in personal solicitation as is possible. Thru the means of the mails literature and correspondence is being sent to all those good people in this district who have supported the good work of the Y. M. C. A. in the past requesting their support in the future. A ready response to these letters will save the busy men of the Local Unit much effort and time. Mr. Harry C. Smith, the Chairman of the Local Board, urges all friends of the Association to mail their checks and pledges to Mr. Ralston Allison who is the Local Treasurer and thus save the time of the County Secretary in following up subscribers who have not yet renewed their pledges. Any new comer to this community is invited to help out in this splendid work.

Mr. Alison states that the response to the local appeal for support has been splendid and is very hopeful of raising the entire budget with little personal solicitation. And no doubt it can and will be done if the good friends of the work respond readily to the letters sent them.

GOIN' CAMPIN'?

A large number of boys are expected at the camps next summer and any boy who wishes to take advantage of this opportunity for a splendid outing for $9.00 should write at once to H. V. Lucas, Y. M. C. A. San Jose or see Ellwood Baugh or "Bob" Vincent one of the local leaders.

Mr. Lucas is spending this week end in conference with the entire force of County and Community Y. M. C. A. secretaries at Los Angeles. Many problems pertaining to boy programs and the Y. M. C. A. work at large will be discussed.

PARADE OF FIGHTING BIRDS
What is Known as the Bass Rock, in the Firth of Forth, Scotland, is Unique.

The fighting birds on the Bass rock, in the Firth of Forth, are described by Oliver G. Pike in the London Daily Mail.
"It is certainly the most wonderful citadel I have ever looked upon," he writes. "Its sides rise straight from the sea, and if you placed St. Paul's cathedral by its side the cross would only just top the cliffs."
"Every available ledge rock contains its bird."
"In the past the Bass rock, in the Firth of Forth, has been a famous fortress, holding out for years against an attacking army. Now, it is a sea bird's citadel, and there they are safe
on the impregnable cliffs."
"One moment there is silence, and that is the most beautiful moment
of all, for it is like a scene from fairland, with dream-wings floating above
you. The next minute a gannet utters its harsh note and a thousand birds
reply, until there is a deafening chorus."
"But if you have the temerity to climb up among the gannets—and to do this you must be a good climber—
then you will see many interesting things."
"Several are fighting and their method of settling a battle is very different from that of the farm-yard cockerel."
"They find a convenient ledge, then, holding one another's beaks, pull and push in opposite directions. The one that wins the fight is the one which pushes or pulls its opponent over the cliff."

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT--- COOPERATION, HELPFULNESS

THE spirit of Christmas is the spirit of co-operation, the spirit of helpfulness. "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Man" cannot mean anything else but friendliness, aiding one another, working together. The go-it-alone policy will not get you anywhere in this day of mass formation. There might have been a time that one could paddle his own canoe but that day has passed. No matter how great the publication or the publisher he needs and must have the good will of his brethren if he is to attain the success desired.
Commenting along this line the "Spirit of Progress" official publication of the Chamber of Commerce at Sioux City, Iowa, says:

The world is too big for any one person to get all there is in life by himself. Now and then we find a man who imagines that he can start a business and make it go without the help of anybody else. These men are getting scarce for bitter experience has shown that it cannot be done. He will struggle along for maybe a few years paying no attention to what his city and neighbors are doing. He makes no effort to serve his community other than for profit, he takes no part in public activities and does not seem to care whether the world moves or not. That man is doomed but for one thing—failure. He will wake up some day and find that the city has advanced so far that he is left entirely behind. That is the reward of no co-operation. His competitor across the street believes in co-operating with the other merchants of the city in an effort to make it a better town in which to live. His business will grow while the other fellow fails. That is the reward of co-operation. In the early days of civilization, men saw that co-operation was necessary in order to protect themselves from the wild animas and ravages of nature. The same thing was true two thousand years ago. Co-operation is necessary in order to preserve your business. Times and conditions change but the fundamental laws of nature stay with us forever.

Human Nature vs. the Christmas Spirit

By Mary Graham Bonner
(©, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.)

WE WERE full of the Christmas spirit. We were going to be more kindly, more charitable, more friendly with the whole world. The Christmas spirit had penetrated. We could feel its warm glow. And so—after a glorious Christmas in the old homestead—
we were on our way back to the city where lately our work had taken us.
The travel was heavy, of course,
and we found ourselves waiting at the end of a long line to get into the dining car. We waited for an hour by our watches. We were exhausted from having stood and from annoyance at the slowness of others and because we were very hungry.
Finally the line grew shorter. Soon our turns would come. But it seemed not. For those who had gone into the dining car at last to eat took time
about it even though their absence
made the waiting line a shorter one.
At last we were at the head of the line. It had been a long process to work up to this point and we smiled
at one another.

"Only a moment now and we'll be eating," we fairly beamed the words.
But again it seemed not so. For those at the tables were eating and eating and eating. They would never finish, it appeared. When they approached the end of their meal and we almost bounded to the nearly-vacant table we discovered they were taking their time over their coffee.
"How selfish people are," we said to each other. "How much they lack the unselfish Christmas spirit. It means nothing to them! They know there is a great line waiting and they don't hurry in the least. Why, just think of the length of time we've waited and there are more to follow us. And yet those people can be as leisurely as though they were in their own homes.
It's outrageous, simply outrageous, how utterly selfish people are. And you would think at this time of the year they'd be a little more thoughtful."
And to our exhaustion was added
the sorrow we felt in the thoughtless-ness of human nature.

And then—the head waiter summoned us to a table. Two persons had at last arisen and at last our turns had actually come!
We sat back and luxuriously perused
the menu. Well, we were hungry. We'd have a good meal!
And we began to order.
"And I'm just going to take my time about it, too," I said. "Just because people stand there and glare at us, as though we almost had no right to be eating our meal, isn't going to make me hurry."
"I should say not," said my companion. "We'll take all the time in the world in spite of their ugly looks!"
It was some time later that we remembered the Christmas spirit we had been so full of before!
"Human nature vs. Christmas spirit," we said sadly to each other.

Dead Broke.
"Are you going to hang up your stockings this Christmas?"
"I am more likely to hang up my watch."

TREE OF CHEER

The California Development
Association has planned a unique Christmas tree, thirty-five feet in height which will stand in the upper lobby of the Ferry Building in San Francisco. It will be erected December 20 and remain radiating its message of cheer until the close of the year. Across the top in electric lights will be spelled the greeting "California Wishes You a Merry Christmas."
Each evening during the Yuletide holidays there will be singing of Christmas carols of ten nations. Choirs of many of the churches will chant their national songs in their native tongues.
Foreign consuls will attend with a view toward spreading goodwill and merriment among their people.
The tree will be emblematic of hospitality and is a novel step to express good-will by reaching the heart of the visitor to California.
Chaffey Union High School's victorious live-stock judging team, winner of premier honors at the Southern California Fair at Riverside and at the State judging contest at the University Farm at Davis and of second place in the great contest at the Pacific International Live Stock Show at Portland, is now at the "International" at Chicago, bent on adding to its laurels.
The team is composed of William Mc-Laughlin, William Beard and John Mc-Laughlin, and their coach, Charles A.
Ferrin.

MELVIN FUNERAL PARLORS

NEW EMERGENCY AMBULANCE SERVICE

WHEN you press a switch button to turn on the light, you may not think of the men
stoking the furnaces at the power plant, understand the wires and dynamos that form
the background of electric lighting service, or appreciate the great investment needed to supply you with electric current.

So also, when you turn for counsel and help to the funeral director in your time of need, you may not stop to think of the scientific training, the technical skill, the modern equipment and the extensive facilities that form the background of his service.

Yet beyond your vision he serves you in scores of unobtrusive ways—many of which scarcely anyone but he could name—for no other one person ever has contact with all of them.

He does not expect that you will look behind the results to see how they were achieved, but that the results themselves will constitute a beautiful and perfect tribute, the memory of which will be a solace and comfort.
